

How is Phonics taught in Class 4?

In Class 4 we have an intervention named Direct Phonics which is used to teach phonics to a small group of children.

The intervention is a teaching programme for children who continue to struggle with basic literacy.

The lessons are split up into 10 blocks with 6 lessons per block.

Children listen, speak, read and write in each session and learning is assessed at the end of each block.